

Notice of

King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonburi:

The surveillance of COVID-19 outbreak

No. 74 on July 30, 2021

On July 29, 2021, the University was reported 5 COVID-19 confirmed cases as follow

The first case is a female undergraduate student from the Department of Tool and Materials Engineering, Faculty of Engineering (the 158th case of KMUTT). The student had already registered for Home Isolation Program, and currently waits for further response from the government agencies. The student reported that she hasn't entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) and hasn't done any activities with other students or staff since June. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

The second case is a female undergraduate student from the Department of Chemistry, Faculty of Science (the 159th case of KMUTT). Currently, she is in a government hospital for treatment. The student reported that she hasn't entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) and hasn't done any activities with other students or staff since June. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

The third case is a female undergraduate student from the Department of Electrical Engineering, Faculty of Engineering (the 160th case of KMUTT). The student had already registered for Home Isolation Program, and currently waits for further response from the government agencies. The student reported that she hasn't entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) and hasn't done any activities with other students or staff since June. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

The fourth case is a female undergraduate student from the Department of Educational Communications and Technology, Faculty of Industrial Education and Technology (the 161st case of KMUTT). The student had already registered for Home Isolation Program, and currently waits for further response from the government agencies. The student reported that she hasn't entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) and hasn't done any activities with other students or staff since June. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

The fifth case is a male master's student from the School of Information Technology (the 162nd case of KMUTT). The student had already registered for Home Isolation Program, and currently waits for further response from the government agencies. The student reported that he hasn't entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) and hasn't done any activities with other students or staff since June. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

Announced on July 29, 2021 at 12.00 hrs.

Should there be any update on the situation, the University will further announce it via <https://covid-19.kmutt.ac.th>

bit.ly/Wereport