Notice of
King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonburi:
The surveillance of COVID-19 outbreak
No. 181 on January 10, 2022

On January 10, 2022, the University was reported 5 COVID-19 confirmed cases as follows:

The first case is a male undergraduate student from the Department of Tool and Materials Engineering, Faculty of Engineering (the 576th case of KMUTT). Currently, he is in a private hospital for treatment. The student reported that he hasn't entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) and hasn't done any activities with other students or staff since December 20, 2021. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

The second case is a male undergraduate student from the Department of Mathematics, Faculty of Science (the 577th case of KMUTT). He has already contacted the relevant government agencies, and is currently waiting for further response regarding his treatment program. The student reported that he hasn't entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) and hasn't done any activities with other students or staff since December 20, 2021. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

The third case is a female staff member of the School of Information Technology (the 578th case of KMUTT). Currently, she is in a private hospital for treatment. The staff reported that she hasn't entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) and hasn't done any activities with other students or staff since December 20, 2021. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected staff might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

The fourth case is a female undergraduate student from the Department of Microbiology, Faculty of Science (the 579th case of KMUTT). Currently, she is in a hospitel for treatment. The student reported that she hasn't entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) and hasn't done any activities with other students or staff since December 20, 2021. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

The fifth case is a female undergraduate student from the Department of Electronic and Telecommunication Engineering, Faculty of Engineering (the 580th case of KMUTT). She has already contacted the relevant government agencies, and is currently waiting for further response regarding her treatment program. The student entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) on January 7, 2022. She kept physical distancing and wore a face mask all the time while visiting the university premises. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

Announced on January 10, 2022 at 12.00 hrs.

Should there be any update on the situation, the University will further announce it via https://covid-19.kmutt.ac.th