

Notice of

King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonburi:

The surveillance of COVID-19 outbreak

No. 184 on January 13, 2022

On January 13, 2022, the University was reported 5 COVID-19 confirmed cases as follows:

The first case is a female undergraduate student from the Department of Civil Technology Education, Faculty of Industrial Education and Technology (the 595th case of KMUTT). She has already contacted the relevant government agencies, and is currently waiting for further response regarding her treatment program. The student reported that she hasn't entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus and KMUTT Bang Khun Thain Campus) and hasn't done any activities with other students or staff since January 2022. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

The second case is a female undergraduate student from the Department of Mathematics, Faculty of Science (the 596th case of KMUTT). Currently, she is in a hospital for treatment. The student reported that she hasn't entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) and hasn't done any activities with other students or staff since January 2022. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

The third case is a male undergraduate student from the Department of Civil Engineering, Faculty of Engineering (the 597th case of KMUTT). He has already contacted the relevant government agencies, and is currently waiting for further response regarding his treatment program. The student reported that he hasn't entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) and hasn't done any activities with other students or staff since January 2022. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

The fourth case is a female undergraduate student from the Department of Educational Communications and Technology, Faculty of Industrial Education and Technology (the 598th case of KMUTT). Currently, she is in a hospital for treatment. The student reported that she hasn't entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) and hasn't done any activities with other students or staff since January 2022. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

The fifth case is a male undergraduate student from the Department of Computer Engineering, Faculty of Engineering (the 599th case of KMUTT). He has already contacted the relevant government agencies, and is currently waiting for further response regarding his treatment program. The student entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) on January 10, 2022. He kept physical distancing and wore a face mask all the time while visiting the university premises. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

Announced on January 13, 2022 at 12.00 hrs.

Should there be any update on the situation, the University will further announce it via <https://covid-19.kmutt.ac.th>

bit.ly/Wereport