Notice of
King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonburi:
The surveillance of COVID-19 outbreak
No. 186 on January 15, 2022

On January 15, 2022, the University was reported 4 COVID-19 confirmed cases as follows:

The first case is a male staff member of Darunsikkhalai School for Innovative Learning (DSIL) (the Unit under supervision of the University) (the 607th case of KMUTT). Currently, he is in a private hospital for treatment. The staff entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) on January 6, 2022. He kept physical distancing and wore a face mask all the time while visiting the university premises. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected staff might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

The second case is a female undergraduate student from the Department of Computer Engineering, Faculty of Engineering (the 608th case of KMUTT). She has already contacted the relevant government agencies, and is currently waiting for further response regarding her treatment program. The student entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) on January 6, 2022. She kept physical distancing and wore a face mask all the time while visiting the university premises. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

The third case is a male undergraduate student from the Department of Tool and Materials Engineering, Faculty of Engineering (the 609th case of KMUTT). Currently, he is in a hospitel for treatment. The student reported that he hasn't entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) and hasn't done any activities with other students or staff since January 2022. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

The fourth case is a female undergraduate student from the Department of Microbiology, Faculty of Science (the 610th case of KMUTT). Currently, she is in a government hospital for treatment. The student reported that she hasn't entered the University premises (KMUTT Bangmod Campus) and hasn't done any activities with other students or staff since January 2022. The related units are currently investigating to identify people whom the infected student might be in close contact with to assess the level of risk and continue to operate the relevant practices according to the measures of the Department of Disease Control.

Announced on January 15, 2022 at 12.00 hrs.

Should there be any update on the situation, the University will further announce it via https://covid-19.kmutt.ac.th

bit.ly/Wereport